

CHEZ JUDE

contemporary cuisine
culinary classes

catering to your every whim

Press Release

Executive Chef & Co-Owners , Judi & Peter Barsness are announcing the sale of the property that has been the home of Chez Jude Restaurant, Catering & Cooking School. Chez Jude has received many accolades from the Twin Cities Press over the years and Chef Judi and her talented staff are extremely proud to have set the standards for Fine Dining on the North Shore.

The Restaurant will be closing its current site of operations October 27th with a Grand Finale 6 Course Harvest Wine Dinner and will be relocating its new "Chef to You" concept*, along with the Catering & Cooking School aspects of Chez Jude to an alternate location, soon to be announced, in 2013.

Peter & Judi are looking forward to a Barsness form of semi retirement at their lake cabin and the opportunity to spend more time with each other and their family.

* Chef to You concept = Chef Judi will now come into your cabin, condo or home and prepare an extraordinary dining experience for you, your family, your guests. Each menu will be individually designed with each client and paired with the appropriate beverages desired. Rather than you going to the Chef, the Chef will now come to you.

This is an expansion and bringing together of Chez Jude's already very successful "Catering to Your Every Whim" Catering Co. and Private Cooking Class Dinner Parties concepts.

Chez Jude is continuing its search for a new location to establish its North Shore Culinary Event Center. All inquiries and potential partners are invited to contact Chef Judi Barsness at judi@chezjude.com